

INVITATIONAL FORUM FOR CHURCHES WITH STRONG YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

Invitational Forum for Churches with Strong Young Adult Ministry

A “roundtable” opportunity to meet each other, speak confidentially with each other about issues that are important to you, and glean ideas from each other.

When:

November 18, 2009 from 9am to 3pm

Where:

Leadership Network’s Innovation Lab in downtown Dallas, TX (20 miles from DFW, 5 miles from Dallas-Love). Many can fly in that morning and fly home that afternoon.

Hosts:

Dave Travis, Managing Director of Leadership Network (www.leadnet.org) and Warren Bird, Research Director for Leadership Network, which for 25 years has facilitated below-the-radar conversations for leaders of America’s largest, most innovative and fastest growing churches.

Why:

The goal for this gathering is peer learning from a very specialized group, as you exchange insights about your experiences and what you would like to learn from others in the room. Most churches find they have more in common by attendance than by any other factor, and this is an opportunity to sit down with others who are on the same page as you are – both for size and ministry role.

How:

Leadership Network has extensive experience in facilitating discussion so that no person or single issue dominates the conversation. Two weeks before our gathering you will have opportunity to create the agenda for what we talk about.

To Qualify:

- Church’s weekly attendance is 2,000+
- Church is 25 years or older,
- Young adult ministry has at least one full-time staff person.
- Young adult ministry involves at least 10% of the total church size.
- Young adult ministry is a vital and strategic emphasis for the church.
